BRC Code of Conduct/Showground Rules

The BRC code of conduct must be observed at all BRC events, this includes the conduct of members, officials, volunteers and representatives. A full summary of the BRC code of conduct can be found in section 1 page 3 of the BRC handbook. This includes, horse/pony welfare, safeguarding, equality and diversity, good conduct and discipline and social media. Any person on the show ground must follow all instructions that are made.

All other areas at the venue apart from parking, warmup and competition are strictly out of bounds. Non-compliance will result in elimination from the competition and a ban from this venue.

Please clear all droppings and hay before you leave. No mucking out of lorries into the carpark.

All dogs to be kept on short leads. Please clear up after your dog!

The organisers and land owners will not hold themselves responsible for any incident or injury to riders, owners, and spectators or any other person or property whatsoever, however caused. It shall be deemed a condition of entry that each entrant shall agree to indemnify the promoters against any legal action arising from such incident.
